Re: Miscellaneous Proceedings Concerning Advanced Telecommunications
Capability -- CC Docket Nos. 98-147, 01-338 and 02-33

Ex parte presentation pursuant to C.F.R. §1.1206(a)(1)

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Catena Networks, Inc. ("Catena") met on Friday with Jessica Rosenworcel of Commissioner Copps' staff. Representing Catena were Gary Bolton, Doug Cooper and myself. During the meeting, Catena discussed the positive impact that the broadband portions of the Triennial Review Order have had on Catena's sales of DSL-enabling products to RBOC customers. Catena also addressed the heightened interest in Catena's products by competitive carriers that appear to be pursuing a "UNE-L strategy." Catena's experience is that the marketplace is responding affirmatively to the Triennial Review Order's elimination of the uncertainty and the removal of the regulatory disincentives in the prior broadband unbundling rules.

Catena did raise concerns with one aspect of the Triennial Review Order. As discussed in Catena's comments in the reconsideration proceeding, Catena urged the Commission to eliminate the disparate treatment of fiber-to-the-curb versus fiber-to-the-home.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

Stephen L. Goodman
Counsel for Catena
